

As a taxpayer and resident of Wisconsin, I want you to know that Wisconsin's "Do Not Call" list functions well. There is no reason, other than big business lobbying, that you should be getting involved. One of the principles of the Republican administration is supposedly keeping government out of people's private lives. We are happy with the way Wisconsin's "Do Not Call" list works, so leave it alone!